

MICHIGAN BAPTIST SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY (MBSS) APPLICATION FOR FIRST-TIME SEMINARY SUPPORT

Introduction. MBSS seeks to raise money to award seminary scholarships to men and women who are active members of churches affiliated with American Baptist Churches of Michigan and are studying to become professional church leaders. Usually that means a pastor, missionary, or chaplain.

Because of significantly declining gifts to MBSS in recent years and a desire to put more emphasis on seminary students, we will not be supporting new undergraduates starting in the fall 2019. Likewise, the amount of individual scholarships will probably be decreased.

These seminary scholarships may be for full-time or part-time study. However, it is expected that part-time students will take at least half of what their school considers as a full-time program to be eligible. The amount of scholarship help is proportional.

MBSS recipients must be in a seminary accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). Students at ABC-USA seminaries might get more support than those at other seminaries.

Decisions about scholarships are made by the MBSS governing board (which is chosen by ABC-MI). The amount of assistance per applicant depends on several factors. It may range between $500 to $1,000 per year – contingent on the number of applicants and available funds.

The finances are handled by the ABC-MI bookkeeper. Scholarship money goes to schools of MBSS recipients to be deposited in their accounts.

Most seminary students have undergraduate debts and usually are not eligible for as much financial assistance from sources outside of the faith community as compared with undergraduates. Likewise, the farther along a person goes in his or her education, the more likely is the commitment towards professional church leadership.

Another factor is the range of seminary costs. It is more expensive to go away to school than to attend one within commuting distance, and online learning is often cheaper than being on campus. MBSS tries to take these matters into consideration when considering applications and to be as fair as possible in determining financial need. As you might expect, the amount of scholarship assistance that one recipient gets may not be the same as for another person.

You can apply for support at various stages in seminary studies. Unfortunately, MBSS does not have funds to help with doctoral programs.

Finally, please remember our first point: the need to raise money to award scholarships. The amount MBSS can give in a specific year depends on what we have available and the number of applicants. We ask our recipients to be our “ambassadors” by helping to spread the word about what MBSS is doing. A simple goal is to encourage each ABC-MI church to contribute one dollar per member per year to MBSS.

Agreement: After prayer and consultation with others, I believe that I qualify for a MBSS Scholarship because I meet all MBSS criteria. If chosen for support, I realize that I must maintain at least a 2.5 grade point average based on a 4.0 scale and earn the amount of credit that I explained above. If I receive an MBSS Scholarship but do not complete my education as planned, I promise to contact MBSS as soon as possible to describe my situation. Unless there are extenuating circumstances beyond my control that keep me from completing my academic program, I accept moral responsibility to repay my MBSS Scholarship to help others going into professional church vocations.

I also agree to help publicize MBSS insofar as possible. Unless I submit a written statement requesting otherwise, I authorize MBSS to use my picture and brief autobiographical highlights (along with those from other recipients) as part of a display and other fund-raising efforts.
